

www.endulen.de

@EnduleneV

@endulen_ev

Endulen e.V.

is a non-governmental-organization (NGO) aiming to promote health care projects in Tanzania. It was founded in 2008 and is based in Germany. In addition, to the construction & Health Care projects, Endulen e.V. has established a scholarship program to give financial supports to students engaged in study programs related to Medicine & Health Care.

Requirements

Required application documents in English
E-mail contact for applications:
studyprogram@endulen.de

! Incorrect information will result in immediate disqualification from the application process

Please send us all of the following documents to apply for the scholarship:

- Application form
- CV in table form
- Last Transcript of Records,
- employment contract if applicable
- Two letters of recommendation (from former or present workplace, University, or other educational programs)
- Cost breakdown for the planned education/ further training per academic year from the University or Training Center
- A short post (photo with text or video) to introduce yourself on social media

! Uncomplete applications cannot be assessed

Call for a scholarship by Endulen e.V.

We want to assist dedicated nurses, medical officers, medical doctors, midwives and physiotherapists to reach their goals.

Endulen e.V.

What do we offer?

- Financial support for training/ further education in the Health Care sector through full payment of tuition fees
- Possibility to apply for additional funding for research projects, thesis, etc.
- Provision of a contact person of Endulen e.V. for the duration of the scholarship
- We do NOT provide: coverage of living expenses, travel expenses, book costs, laptops, etc.
- We unfortunately CANNOT provide scholarships for master degrees this year

Admission Requirements

- Enrollment in an education/ training program in the Health Care sector
- Employment contract with a medical facility
- 2 years of practical work experience for advanced trainings (e.g. residency training)
- Excellent English skills
- Good academic performance
- High motivation to improve medical care
- Willingness to share newly acquired knowledge

What do we expect from scholars?

- Timely completion and submission of the required documents and reports
- Good academic performance
- Involvement in social projects (e.g. medical training in villages)
- Submitting social media posts to Endulen e.V.
- Reliable and quick communication
- Fellows independently communicate any major changes
- After completion of studies: Working for (at least) 3 years in a health facility in a rural area

Timeline of the application process

01.03.24 - 31.05.24

Application Period

01.06.24 - 15.07.24

Selection process;
if necessary, interview via video call

16.07.24 - 31.07.24

Notification of acceptance